

Senior/WIC Checks (FMNP) Information

Updated June 2, 2026

Dear Community Partner,

As you may know, many WIC recipients and eligible seniors receive Farmers Market Nutrition Program (FMNP) checks to spend at local farmers markets.

This year's checks will expire on November 30, 2026, and we have created a listing of all Philadelphia farmers' markets that have at least one vendor who accepts these checks.

Note: For the best selection of Pennsylvania-grown produce, we recommend that shoppers spend their checks during summer and early fall, at the height of the growing season.

We ask that you help us get this flyer into the hands of any FMNP recipient who has checks to spend! We will update the information monthly.

Additional resources to share with community members:

- The Farmers Market Finder App, at phila.gov/farmers-markets. This map allows you to identify the closest open markets to an address. Note: Some seasonal markets do not open until July.
- The Food Trust's farmers market hotline (215-967-9872). Leave a message, and our staff will be ready to help shoppers find a market near them.
- The citywide campaign Harvesting Happiness, at phillyfarmersmarkets.org, shares food access resources and farmers market FAQs.
- PCA Helpline (215-765-9040) connects seniors with nearby markets. For more information, visit pcacares.org/produce or email sfmnp@pcacares.org.
- The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's FMNP finder website, where residents can search by ZIP code: pafmnp.org.

Thank you for your support!
